Sightseeing after the Triennial Conference:

The Conference dates are planned in such a way that sightseeing can be organized on Monday, return by Monday night and departure from Tuesday morning

Fr. Sebastian Ousepparampil, Regional President (East & Northeast Region), Xavier Board, suggested four possibilities of sightseeing after the Triennial Conference. Since the members will be travelling a long distance to attend the Triennial Conference and it would certainly be an educative experience to visit the other states in the North East.

The four possibilities suggested are as follows:

- 1. Cherapunjee
- 2. Shillong: Don Bosco museum of tribal culture
- 3. Khaziranga national park in Assam
- 4. Bhutan.

More details in the next Communication.

Regards & Best Wishes,

Dr. Sr. Annamma Philip FMM
